NEWS & ANNUAL APPEAL

Fall Crops at the Oaks

Fall Crops at the Oaks." We are grateful for the continuing efforts of the Metro Master Gardeners for maintaining the Oaks' gardens. Jerlean Price has planted cabbage, collards, and kale in the kitchen garden this fall.

Art at The Oaks

A Visit to the Oaks House with Ellen Langford

Ellen Langford has been hard at work producing art this year at The Oaks. She enjoys working in the northwest room due to the abundance of natural light and really loves plein-air painting in the beautiful garden. You may even catch her waving at neighbors under her tent. The Oaks Museum is planning to showcase Ellen's work along the hallway for visitors to enjoy. Be on the lookout for Ellen's "Wine Down Wednesdays", where you can bring your own paints and chat with her while she works. Check out Ellen's Facebook page, "Paintings by Ellen Langford," for regular updates.

Belhaven's Bright Lights... in the Heights

Bright Lights was reimagined in 2023 with neighborhood businesses hosting music stages and art markets. The Oaks House served as a check-in station to kick the event off. Save the date for Bright Lights on September 22, 2024.
